UPSET TRYING TO AVOID MISHAP

Crowd of Young People Escape
Serious Injury When Light
Automobile Turns Over

CAR FALLS ON MILDRED ONEAL

Girl at Wheel Cuts Corner Too Short
in Order to Miss Another
Machine

Becoming confused when she saw a machine approaching and thinking to avoid an accident, Miss Cleta McNamara driving a machine owned by Joseph Campbell of Shelbyville in which were the Misses Mildred Oneal and Aileen Green, Woodford Richardson, also of Shelbyville and the owner, turned suddenly into a side street and the light car upset. The accident occurred Sunday morning at the corner of Main and Ninth streets.

Miss Oneal was the only one hurt, although all suffered from the shock. Miss Oneal was rendered unconscious, but soon revived. She was bruised considerably but the injuries will not prove serious. The escape of the occupants was considered remarkable.

As the machine approached Ninth street from the south, the machine driven by John Benning of near Moscow, was approaching Main street in West Ninth street. Miss McNamara, believing that a collision was unavoidable, turned suddenly into Ninth street. Before she could right the machine it turned over.

Mr. Benning stated after the accident that the young people had plenty of time to get by the crossing and that as he had his machine under control there was no chance of a collision. Mr. Benning was considerably worried over the accident as he believed that in a way he was responsible.

The five young people were in a light runabout and fortunately the machine did not fall on them. The machine was not damaged outside of a broken wind shield. The crash was heard for several blocks and the accident attracted a large crowd.

HAD NO DOCTOR AT BIRTH OF A CHILD

Mrs. Robert Cameron, in Suit For Divorce, Alleges Husband
Wouldn't Provide Any.

ASKS $1,000 ALIMONY ALSO

Mrs. Priscilla Cameron, through her attorney Thomas M. Green filed suit for divorce this morning Robert Cameron, asking for the custody of their two children and alimony in the sum of $1,000. A temporary restraining order was issued by the court forbidding him from disposing of any of his property.

The complaint alleges cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Cameron claims that he repeatedly struck and beat her and called her vile names. She alleges that he refused to have a physician when one of their children was born and that a doctor was not called for five hours after the child was born. The complaint states that he kept the groceries and provisions under lock and key and that the children were often compelled to go hungry.

MARY J. CONNER IS FOUND DEAD

Mother of Mrs. Jane Kincaid Expires
Some Time Saturday
Night or Sunday Morning

HER DEATH A GREAT SHOCK

Mrs. Mary J. Conner, 78 years old, widow of the late B. L. Conner, was found dead in bed Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jane Kincaid, in North Morgan street. Mrs. Conner had been dead about two hours when found. Death was due to heart disease. She had been in her usual health and Saturday evening ate a hearty supper and retired for the night apparently in fine health. Her death came as a great shock to a large circle of friends and relatives.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Kincaid, two brothers, S. W. Thompson, and Victor Thompson and one sister, Mrs. Susan McColligan. Mrs. Conner is also survived by two grandchildren, Russell and Florence Conner. The funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock at the late residence and burial will take place in East Hill cemetery. Friends may call any time.

FATHER WILL BE HONORED ALSO

First Presbyterian Church Will Honor
or "Head" of Home as Well
as "Heart"

TWO SPECIAL SERVICES

Next Sunday Morning all Churches
Will Worship at Mother's Shrine
Events Combined

Father, the long neglected "head" of the house, will take place alongside Mother next Sunday and will be signally honored. He will come into what is rightfully his when the First Presbyterian church will recognize him as a component part of the household and will hold services in his honor in the evening of the day which it has been the custom to celebrate Mother's Day, which is now almost universally observed.

Father's Day has been growing in momentum for years. Father's Day has been observed in some places previous to this year, but the First Presbyterian church has hit upon the idea of celebrating both special occasions on the same day.

The second Sunday in May is now widely observed as Mother's Day and will be so celebrated by all of the churches in the city and most of them in the county, it is very probable.

Mother's Day was founded in 1908 by Miss Anna Jarvis, and the sentiment of the idea made an instant appeal. In 1914 Congress passed resolutions on Mother's Day, setting aside the second Sunday in May as the date of its observance.

Like other memorial days Mother's Day is celebrated through the agency of flowers. It was suggested that persons whose mother was dead should wear a white carnation, and that a colored carnation should mean that the mother still lived. The demand for carnations became so much greater than the supply that within the last year or two it was suggested that any flowers should have the same symbolic meaning.

It is also the custom to send flowers to one's mother—ranging from the most expensive orchids to the lovely old-fashioned mignonette or forget-me-nots. In honor of dead mothers, in addition to the wearing of white flowers, it has become more and more a custom to make a special visit on this day to the grave of the departed, and to decorate the grave with wreaths, plants and floral tributes.

MISTAKEN FOR SEA RAIDERS

Allied Target Vessels Thought to be German Submarines.

(By United Press.)
New York, May 8.—The supposed "German raider" which the Fabre liner Venecia outran off the Azores were probably British or French cruisers at target practice. Captain Gaunt, British naval attaché, talked with Captain Bonifacia of the Venecia today and later expressed his conviction that the ships were allied war vessels probably at target practice, the targets and launches towing them being mistaken by the Venecia's crew for submarines.

FRANKLIN MAN HELD.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 8.—Joseph Deer of Franklin, Ind., has been arrested by the United States authorities following an indictment returned by the May federal grand jury which charges Deer with sending obscene literature through the mails. His arraignment was today set for May 19.

SUES FOR $10,000 AND TAKES $75

R. A. Hardin, Who Compromised
Alienation Suit, Also Released
From Paying Former Wife $100.

EACH SIDE PAYS OWN COSTS

One-Time Mother-in-Law of Hardin's, Mrs. Margaret Glendenning, Defendant in the Case.

What promised to be the most sensational alienation suit ever tried here ended this morning by a compromise shortly after the jury had been obtained. It was the suit of Robert Basil Hardin against Mrs. Margaret Glendenning in which $10,000 was demanded.

Under the terms of the compromise Hardin received $75 and is released from paying $100 alimony to his divorced wife, Mrs. Jeanette Hardin, obtained through a judgment not long ago. Each side paid their own costs and two other suits involving the Hardins, Joe and Basil, father and son, respectively, and Mrs. Glendenning were dismissed and the costs paid. These two suits were an action to replevin some hogs, filed by the Hardins and a receivership suit brought by Mrs. Glendenning.

The alienation suit had its origin from the divorce suit and was filed shortly after the divorce was heard. The allegations in the complaint were of a sensational nature and would have been a repetition of the evidence introduced at the divorce trial.

The work of securing the jury had been completed when the compromise was reached. The jury had been sworn and the attorneys were ready for the opening statements. The agreement between the parties was made in writing.

It will be recalled that the Hardin divorce suit was one of the most interesting ever tried here and was exceedingly hard fought. The parties reside in the neighborhood of Arlington and the case attracted no end of attention. In the complaint for damages alleging alienation of his wife's affections, Hardin maintained that Mrs. Glendenning insisted on being near her daughter and so influenced her that she lost her love for him.

John A. Tisworth and Thomas M. Green represented the plaintiff and Kiplinger and Smith the defendant.

Edmund Rosenberg was given judgment for $25 and costs against William and Cleo Emsweller by the court this morning. It was an account suit in which the original demand was $100.

Perry T. Innis was appointed guardian for Philander M. Witters of Milroy by Judge Sparks this morning. Innis gave bond in the sum of $2,000. The appointment was made after the court heard the evidence in the case, and declared Witters of unsound mind.

J. M. SULLIVAN IS SAFE

Former U. S. Minister, Held as Irish Rebel, is Released.

(By United Press.)
London, May 8.—James M. Sullivan, former United States minister to Santo Domingo, who was arrested at Dublin in connection with the Irish rebellion has been set free.

The American embassy received a letter from Sullivan today bringing word of his release. He said that he was arrested on suspicion of being a rebel and was held in prison for eight days.

OPPOSES THE AMENDMENT

Brandeis Confirmation is Again
Postponed Indefinitely.

(By United Press.)
Washington, May 8.—Just as the senate judiciary committee, urged to action by a letter from President Wilson, prepared to ballot on the confirmation of Louis D. Brandeis as justice of the supreme court, two senators objected today. As a result, action, which seemed near, again was indefinitely postponed. Who the senators were, members of the committee would not say.

ACCEPTS PART AND REJECTS THE REST

Wilson Will Send Note to Germany
Favors Part of Reply Regarding
New Orders.

REMAINDER TO BE PASSED UP

(By United Press.)
Washington, May 8.—President Wilson will announce acceptance of the German reply to his submarine note late today. It is understood the president's proposition will be outlined in a brief note to Germany, to be made public this afternoon by Secretary Lansing.

This note already may be on its way to Berlin. The president and Lansing conferred last night on its contents and the fact that publication is being held up until this afternoon is believed due to the desire to give time for the note to reach Germany. The note, which is said to be formal acknowledgement of the receipt of the German reply, will indicate plainly, it is declared, that this government in accepting the new pledges by Germany considers herself in no way bound to certain conditions laid down in the German note.

It may be stated on the highest authority that the president's position, summed up briefly, is the acceptance of that part of the German reply which covers the new German order and a rejection of everything else.

FAILS TO TAKE HER EXILE SERIOUSLY

Flora Williams, Ordered to Stay Out of Rushville, Reappears and is Arrested.

SHE CREATES DISTURBANCE

Miss Flora Williams of Arlington failed to take seriously her exile from Rushville, a condition imposed recently by Mayor Bebout when he suspended a fine of $10 and costs and as a result spent Saturday night and Sunday in jail. Friends came to her aid today paying the fine and costs amounting to $20.

Miss Williams was originally fined for evading a subpoena and Mayor Bebout suspended the sentence on the condition that she remain from Rushville and the home of Thomas Alsmann, her brother-in-law. It was stated that she has frequently been back here, but police did not locate her until Saturday night. She created an awful disturbance on the way to jail. A hearing in police court was not necessary to revoke the suspension of the sentence.

United States Authorities Have Several Troops on Trail of Bandits
Raiding Glenn Springs

KILLED 3 SOLDIERS AND BOY

Big Bend District of Texas is in White Heat of Rage Over
Muderous Assault

(By United Press.)
Marathon, Texas, May 8.—Two troops of the Eighth cavalry and Troop A of the Fourteenth cavalry, the former from El Paso and the latter from Alpine, detained here today and plunged into the desert on an 85-mile march to Glenn Springs, the first leg of their chase after the bandits who raided Glenn Springs.

Aline, Texas, May 8.—American troops today rushed through the desolate stretches of the Big Bend country in pursuit of Mexican bandits who killed three American soldiers and a ten-year-old boy and captured two American citizens after a five-hour battle against a little detachment at Glenn Springs, Texas.

The Big Bend country was in a white heat of rage today and throughout the district cattlemen and other residents were rallying to the cry for vengeance. An entire battalion ordered out by General Funston, will detain immediately and sweep southward over the desert towards the border.

El Paso, Texas, May 8.—Three American soldiers and a ten-year-old boy have lost their lives and two American citizens have been kidnapped and carried south of the international boundary to almost certain death in another raid of Mexican bandits that takes rank with Francisco Villa's famous attack on Columbus, N. M.

Practically all the details of the raid reaching here came to General Funston from Major O. B. Meyer, of the Fourteenth Cavalry, stationed at Marfa. According to Major Meyer, the bandits, about seventy-five in number, crossed the Rio Grande from the Mexican side late Friday afternoon at a points outh of Terlingua, Tex., where there is a guard of about thirty men.

From there they proceeded eastward through the desolate reaches of the Big Bend country over an old wagon road toward Glenn Springs, a small ranch settlement.

A few miles west of Glenn Springs an American patrol of eight men from Troop A of the fourteenth Cavalry, under command of Sergeant Smith, was stationed. The bandits began an attack on the little temporary shack in which the troopers were

K. OF C.'S PLAN ORPHANS' HOME

State Convention Will Consider Proposition of Place For Friend-
less and Delinquent Boys.

ORIGINATED FROM GARY

Said to be Most Important Thing
Coming Before State Meeting
—May Cost $90,000.

(By United Press.)
Lafayette, Ind., May 8.—Three hundred delegates to the state convention of the Knights of Columbus,
in session here, began considering today a real home for homeless and friendless delinquent boys, a home in which they will not only be cared for until they reach an age at which they can shift for themselves, but a place to which they can return and
"put their feet under the table" in later years.

This subject was designated as the most important to come before this convention, which started yesterday with a high mass at 10:30
a. m. The convention will end tomorrow night with an elaborate ball.
Gary delegates came here claiming credit for originating the idea of the home and asserting that a site
near Gary would be chosen for it.
Other delegates, notably some from Indianapolis, disputed Gary's right to the idea and said that "several sites were being considered."

The school and home, which will be erected at the cost of $90,000
had its beginning in the mind of C. H.
Maloney six years ago, according to the Gary version. The plan has now been approved by every council in the state and the $90,000 fund has been raised. A Jansen of Gary and the site only remains to be selected.
"Because the project originated in the St. Thomas council of Gary, a site near that city is to be selected,"
said a Gary delegate.

Under the plan for the organization of such a school the members of the state council expect to do away to a large extent with sentencing boys to reform schools.

Court, will on

Saturday, June 3d, 1916

at one o'clock p. m. of said day and from day to day thereafter until sold, offer for sale to the highest and best bidder, the following described real estate
in said county of Rush, State of Indiana, to-wit:
The southwest quarter of Section 10; also the south half of the northwest quarter of said Section 10; also the southeast quarter of said Section 10, except the following tract: beginning at the northwest corner of the said southeast quarter of said Section 10, thence south 25 poles, thence east 160 poles to the east line of said Section, thence north 25 poles to the northeast corner of

as trustees addition to the city of Rushville.

At the law office of Sam. L. Trabue, Rushville, Ind.

This real estate consists of residence property at 820 W. Eighth St., Rushville, Indiana, and 388.58 acres of exceptionally good, level, agricultural land, sufficiently undulating for excellent drainage, which is provided by two large tile drains crossing each tract, and sufficient laterals. It is equipped with two complete sets of farm buildings, is well fenced and is supplied with excellent water by eight wells, three being deep water wells. This is burr oak, poplar and sugar tree land, and is very productive of all kinds of grain and grasses.
It is all under a high state of cultivation except about 35 acres of woodland, wheat crop. There are 2 first class orchards of leading fruits—one young and the other full bearing; also all kinds of small fruits. No open drains. No waste land whatever. This land is located 4 1/2 miles southwest of Rushville on first class highway, in active producing natural gas belt, convenient to church and schools and near a high tension electric supply line from which power and light may be obtained. Community highly intellectual and progressive. Will be sold in tracts ranging from 81 acres to 140 acres or

All records were broken during the month of March in our import and export trade. We imported $214,000,000 worth of goods during that month, or $20,000,000 more than for the previous month, which takes second place in the history of our import trade. Our exports for March amounted to $410,000,000, which is more than any nation ever exported in any one month so far as written record of mankind informs us. This stupendous outflow of goods is caused by the European war. The insatiable maws of foreign cannon and every destructive influence which the ingenuity of man can direct against his brother are resulting in a carousal of prosperity for the United States. The imports will continue to record monthly increases so long as the Democratic tariff law is on the statute books, and when the war has ended and the consuming power of Europe has returned to something like normal, the United States will be the great free trade market of the world, if the Democrats are then in power.

The revenue-producing ability of the Underwood law for March was miserable indeed, only $21,000,000 being realized on the vast amount of imports, or an average rate of duty on all goods imported during the month of 9.8 per cent. The record for the nine months ended with March is equally bad in respects to revenues. We imported during that period $1,505,000,000 worth of goods. This is $103,000,000 more than was imported for the nine months period ended March 1913, under the Republican law, but the revenue collected up to and including March 1916 was $97,500,000 less than for the period ended March 1913. For the nine months just past customs duties amounted to $153,000,000, or an average rate of duty for the period of 10 per cent. During the nine months ended March 1913, under Republican law, on $1,402,000,000 of imports we collected $250,345,000 of customs revenue, or an average rate of duty of 18 per cent.

Nine months of the current fiscal year show a net inward gold movement of $279,315,302. This is money coming from Europe to be used toward liquidating our trade balances against the belligerents. The record for the period just previous to the outbreak of the European war tells quite another story. The Underwood tariff law had been in effect ten months before the war started. Our favorable trade balance began to decrease with startling rapidity immediately after the passage of that law. By April it was against us. In other words we were buying more than we were selling. The balance continued against us each month, rising to $19,400,000 in August. The effect of war orders had not yet become manifested. During the eight months ended August 1914, our gold exports totaled nearly $100,000,000.

Not only did the Republican tariff law protect American industry and American workingmen, but it kept the United States Treasury in good shape. When Woodrow Wilson stepped into office the outgoing Republican administration was able to hand over to him a handsome surplus to set up housekeeping for Uncle Sam. On March 31, 1913, there was a total balance in the general fund of $148,500,000. Eighty millions of that was set aside as a working balance. Democratic extravagance and the failure of the Underwood law as a revenue producer gutted the Treasury in short order. At the end of March, 1916, outstanding claims against the Government, unavailable assets, etc., amounted to $140,433,000. McAdoo reported a balance at that time of $126,745,695, which was $13,687,000 less than these outstanding claims and unavailable assets. The secretary of the Treasury has twice changed the system of Government accounting in order to hide the condition of the Treasury, and it is stated that another method of book-keeping is soon to be adopted, in order to put up a bluff at the close of the fiscal year. And if a "working balance" should show up around the U. S. Treasury they would chloroform it and send it to Redfield's trade museum.

It has been discovered that open air school work gives to teachers such fine complexions that they become the object of envy among their friends. Miss Alice Brumer, of Indianapolis, being called upon to do substitute work as teacher in one of the Indianapolis open air schools, found that in just a few weeks she had gained ten pounds and had developed such good color, and such a fresh and rosy complexion that a friend whom she met on a street car inquired as to the kind of toilet soap she was using. Open air school teachers, and nurses, as well as pupils use nature's cosmetics, and soon show the effect of increased resistance and improved health.

APRIL PROVED "DISTINCTIVE"

Maximum Rainfall in 24 Hours For Period of 36 Years Recorded Last Month

NEW RECORD FOR CLOUDINESS

April this year was a "distinctive" month for two years, according to the monthly report of Elwood Kirkwood, county weather observer for the government. The maximum rainfall for April in a period of 24 hours for the last 36 years was 3.41 inches, which was the case last month. April also set records for cloudiness because there were only two totally clear days in the month. That happened once before in April, 1898.

The maximum temperature for April in a period of 36 years was 1914 and 1896. The high mark was 87, which was not reached last April. The minimum temperature for the same period was 15 above, which was recorded in 1886. The total April rainfall in 36 years was 120.44 inches. The maximum number of rain days was 21, coming in the year 1893. In April, 1896 there were only three rainy days.

The minimum number of clear days for the month in 36 years was 21 and the minimum clear days 2. The total snowfall for April in 28 years was 22.5 inches, making the normal snowfall for April .8 inches.

HUNDRED LEADING HOOSIERS

George W. Julian (1817-1899)

George W. Julian was born on a farm near Centerville, Wayne county, May 5, 1817. Finishing the rural schools he became a teacher for three years he studied law and was admitted to the bar. In 1845 he was elected to the legislature and in 1849 was sent to Congress. Perhaps no public man in Indiana affiliated with more political parties than Julian. As a Whig legislator, vice-president candidate on the Free Soil ticket, Republican congressman, supporter of Horace Greely, and a Democratic appointee under Cleveland, his political record is unique. The fact that he held so many prominent positions in so many political parties is proof of his unusual greatness. During the late years of his life he was busily engaged in writing. Aside from many contributions to newspapers and magazines he published four volumes "Speeches on Political Questions," "Political Recollections," "Later Speeches," and "The Life of Joshua R. Giddings." Julian died July 7, 1899.

PROGRESS SPOILS THE "LOCATIONS"

Modern Improvements Make it Impossible For Centennial Movie Man to Get "Atmosphere."

LOCATIONS TAKEN NEARBY

Indianapolis, Ind., May 8.—The trials and troubles of the "location" men in the employ of the Selig Polyscope Company, which is staging and photographing the scenes of the Indiana centennial motion picture for the Interstate Historical Pictures Corporation are many and varied according to H. C. Hoagland, general manager of the Selig Company. Mr. Hoagland stopped off in Indianapolis for a few minutes on his way to Chicago from Lafayette where he has been superintending the work of staging the battle of the battle of Tippecanoe and the Prophetstown for the Indiana picture.

"All of the beautiful locations our experts found are not susceptible to motion picture photography because of modern improvements," said Mr. Hoagland. "For all the scenes in the Indiana picture we have selected sites near the historical scene where the danger of anachronisms is eliminated. In many cases, however, it will not be possible to produce the scenes right on the spot because of the changes which time has wrought. But we have found suitable locations nearby and thus kept the atmosphere of Indiana soil."

SOCIAL WELFARE IS BIG PROBLEM

This is Theme That Draws Together Today at Purdue Hundreds of Rural Pastors

ALSO LAYMEN ATTENDING

President Stone Makes Opening Address on First Anniversary of University Effort

Lafayette, Ind., May 8.—One of the great problems of country life in Indiana is how to promote the social welfare of rural communities and it is this theme that has drawn together hundreds of pastors and laymen of the state who assembled at Purdue University today for the second annual Rural Church Conference. It is now generally recognized that the most important factor in rural welfare is the church and the object of this meeting is to advise ways and means of closer co-operation between the rural church and the various other agencies that are at work to make country life all that it should be.

Unusual interest has been aroused throughout the state in this question of rural welfare and through the efforts of Purdue University's Agricultural Extension Department in co-operation with the Indiana Church Federation this interdenominational conference is being held to discuss all phases of the question and arrange a working program for the coming year. Representative rural pastors and church workers are here from many different agricultural communities in Indiana to exchange views, review what has been done and outline what is to be done during the next twelve months in the direction of a general rural uplift movement.

Purdue University, having served the farmers of the state in many different ways through education and spreading the gospel of scientific farm methods, is now endeavoring to advance the social welfare of the rural population and it is through the country church and pastors that the University is hoping to solve some of the problems of country life.

The second annual Rural Church Conference marks the close of the first year of active effort in this direction. Much has been accomplished. Much more remains to be accomplished. The fact that the rural welfare movement has met with success is evidenced by the attendance at this year's conference which is double what it was at the first conference.

Three days are to be devoted to a study and discussion of the rural situation and the relation of the country church to the social advancement of the rural community. Among the speakers are men of national reputation as students of country life problems and the program includes addresses, discussions and a general interchange of ideas concerning just what steps are to be taken to promote the work already under way throughout the state. Ministers have come from practically all the important rural communities and with them have come many active laymen. Practical subjects are to be handled in a practical way and helpful suggestions of all kinds advanced.

At today's session President Winthrop Ellsworth Stone of Purdue University discussed Purdue's relation to rural life; the Rev. Walfrid Lindstrom of Pleasant Lake and the Rev. John M. Walker of New Albany gave interesting and enthusiastic accounts of district conferences held at Auburn and English, Ind.; the Rev. W. W. Diehl of Hinckley, Ill., discussed "Centering Community Interests in the Church" and the Rev. Oakel F. Hall, student pastor at Purdue, gave an illustrated lecture on "Week-day Activities of the Church."

President Stone, in his opening address, reviewed the history of the agricultural extension movement, told of the many things Purdue has done to promote the interests of farm folk in Indiana and urged a close co-operation between the rural people and the various university agencies which have for their object the improvement of rural conditions.

In their reports of the district conferences the Rev. Lindstrom and the Rev. Walker called attention to the growing realization of the church's relation to rural advancement and the enthusiasm manifested at these gatherings, the first of the kind ever held in Indiana. They indicated a growing desire on the part of all enterprising rural communities to make the church the social center by giving it their support and co-operating in every way possible with the work which can and ought to be done by the church and school in every agricultural neighborhood.

An exceptionally enthusiastic, practical and useful address was that by Rev. Diehl who is qualified to discuss rural problems by reason of the fact that he is a graduate of the Michigan Agricultural college, has taught school in the country and now preaches in a rural community. "I elect to be a country preacher," he said, "because I think it is the best place on God's foot-stool to invest a human life." Continuing, he said, "The social center church is now demanded in the country. There are few societies or organizations in the average country community. Casual meetings are of an individual nature. There exists too little community sense or consciousness. The tendency now is to go to town for amusement, entertainment and, often, for instruction. The countryside, as far as social life and service are concerned, is too often left a barren waste."

People crave companionship, they like to be together. Therefore, they need some common meeting place for work and play, for sociability, for educational and spiritual uplift. Let the country community forget its church differences for a generation and emphasize the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man and give opportunity for the cultivation of a brotherly service and the country church will become a real social center and a tremendous force for righteousness and better living. Country folk live on about the same social plane and have interests in common. With inspiration and incentive from the church the social life will be broadened and will not get out of joint with religion. Fellowship will develop and a wholesome community pride and spirit will be restored.

"It is nonsense to say that social educational and industrial activities centering in the country church will detract from religion and lead to worldliness. Social service tends to give life and reality to religion. Church life and business will drag

Sham Battle at State School is Feature of Inspection of Military Corps Today.

RETREAT ONE OF PROBLEMS

(By United Press.)

Madison, Wis., May 8.—A battle in which University of Wisconsin cadets are defending the city of Madison from an attacking force is the main feature of annual inspection of the university military corps by Mayor Monroe McFarland of the general staff of the United States army, today.

The attacking force is advancing from Eagle Heights, a point three and a half miles from the university. The invaders awaited reinforcements at Eagle Heights, then advanced on the University boys encamped in a marsh two miles from the enemy.

The enemy was halted by machine gun fire. The commanding officer sent a flanking column around the Madison forces and caused them to retire.

The problem of the Madison boys was sent to work out their retreat from the marsh to a position in front of the university buildings. The narrowing of the attack was the problem of the enemy.

NO REASON FOR IT

When Rushville Citizens Show a Way

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a Rushville citizen says:

Mrs. Lizzie Borem, 840 W. 9th St., Rushville, says: "About six years ago I began to have trouble with my kidneys. The kidney secretions were very annoying and the trouble kept getting worse. The kidney secretions were very painful in passage and scanty. Doctors said it was gravel, but none of them did me any good. A short time ago I heard of how someone else was cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got a box at Wolcott's Drug Store. They helped me and I kept on using them. I have taken four boxes so far and the pain has left and I feel a great deal better. I believe that Doan's Kidney Pills will cure me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Borem had. Foster-Milburn, Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Advertisement)

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

If you want a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

SURVEY BEFORE THE BUILDING

This is Idea Embodied in Joint Highway Bill Now Pending Before House and Senate.

PROVIDES AN INVESTIGATION

Would Prevent Old Hit and Miss Plan of Building Roads Which Has Cost so Much.

Washington, May 8.—Provision for an investigation and report to Congress of a preliminary plan for a system of national highways by the Corps of Engineers of the army is made in a joint bill now pending before the Senate and House Committees on Military Affairs. The bill was introduced in the Senate by Senator John A. Shields of Tennessee and in the House by Representative John H. Small of North Carolina.

In particular this bill embodies the principle of having conducted a scientific investigation and survey of the highway routes upon which federal funds are to be expended before the work of construction is begun. It seeks, it is said, to prevent the hit or miss building of roads by the Federal Government which are located, not by expert surveys, but by local political influence,—roads which begin anywhere within a State and end nowhere in particular. The danger of having federal funds for good roads expended in such fashion has already caused the dangerous cry of "pork" to be raised in Congress when the good roads appropriation bills were under discussion.

Under the terms of the Shields-Small bill, the Federal Government would devote its funds and energies solely to the construction of main or trunk-line highway units connecting and correlating the highway system within the States. Instead of providing funds to pay a part of the State's bills on State roads, the Federal Government would take over to build and maintain entirely, certain of the principal highways. That would relieve the States of a considerable part of their present burden and would allow them to devote more money to the building of more miles of good roads radiating from the State highways, while townships or individuals would build good roads feeding the county highways. Thus the entire country would be woven together by a network of highways each system feeding the other, as is done by the railways.

The Shields-Small bill was drawn by Mr. Cyrus Kehr, of Knoxville Tenn., a member of the National Highways Association, in co-operation with Senator Shields, Representative Small, and engineer officer on duty at the War Department. It has been approved by the War Department. While the bill embodies two of the principles for which the National Highways Association has contended in its Good Roads campaign, it is not particularly supported by the Association which thus far has lent its support to principles only and not to any particular piece of legislation.

That this effort to have Congress provide a preliminary highway plan prepared according to recognized principles of engineering and to

MAY DEMAND AN INCREASE

Much Speculation as to What Conductors Will Do.

(By United Press.) St. Louis, Mo., May 8.—Eight hundred representatives of the Order of Railroad Conductors of America met here today for their first triennial convention.

There was much speculation as to whether they would vote to join the hundreds of thousands of other trainmen now threatening to strike if their wage demands are not met.

Grand Chief Conductor Garrison, said today that he does not believe here is any direct connection between this convention and the trainmen's labor troubles, but admitted he subject might come up for discussion.

Six hundred and fifty divisions in the United States and Canada are represented. The meeting will last two weeks, during which time the organization will be reconstructed and new officers elected.

provide for federal interstate highways before federal funds are spent, marks the trend of sentiment upon his subject here is indicated in the debates upon Good Roads measures which have recently occurred in Congress. In the debate upon the Bankhead bill, Senator George W. Norris, of Nebraska, said:

"I think the contribution of the Federal Government ought not to go to all of the roads in the country. It ought to be confined to a system of interstate highways."

This idea of restricting the federal participation in highway construction to a system of main interstate trunk-lines to be located by the representatives of many an expert survey is now supported by many Congressional Districts. The opinion is growing that in this way such federal funds as are devoted to good roads construction will be spent toward a definite object, the highest economic results will be realized and the movement will be saved from condemnation by the public on the ground that it is "pork" legislation.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

Tender Teeth—the first sign of Pyorrhea

When you brush your teeth, does it feel as though you were brushing against the quick? Do the gums sometimes bleed? This is because pyorrhea has caused the gums to pull away from your teeth, leaving the unenamelled surfaces unprotected.

Your dentist will tell you, if you ask him, that you have gum recession; and that gum recession is caused by pyorrhea.

Unchecked, pyorrhea will warp and shrink and deform the gums. It will break down the bony structure into which the teeth are set—and you will eventually lose them. To save your teeth you will have to begin to fight this dread disease at once.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

But Senreco does more. It cleanses the teeth delightfully. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senreco alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesomeness.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today; or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sentalen Remedies Company 503 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

quartered before the single sentinel could raise an alarm. The time was about 11 o'clock.

The attackers rushed toward the shack, shouting "Viva Villa!" and "Viva, Carranza!" They were met by a sturdy defense from the half-asleep Americans, however, and failed in their evident attempt to make a quick capture of the patrol guard.

From 11 o'clock that night until after 2 o'clock in the morning Sergeant Smith fought the Mexicans from the shelter of the patrol house. In that time three of his men, privates Cohen, Coloe and Rogers, had been killed and all the rest were wounded. Then the shack caught fire.

Washington Makes Representations to Carranza About Raid.

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 8.—Representations have been made to the Carranza government regarding the Mexican raid against the Big Bend country. A state department message to General Carranza suggested that he do all in his power to prevent a recurrence. Further it suggests a readjustment of Carranza forces would be advisable so that scattered bands could not again cross the Rio Grande.

The state department message assumed Carranza will do all he can to guard against all the fresh attacks.

FAMOUS RIGGS BANK CASE OPENS

Officials Charged With Perjury in Testifying Regarding Stock Transactions.

GOVERNMENT BACK OF CASE

Upon Acquittal or Resignations Depends Whether Government Will Issue Charter.

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 8.—With the leading legal lights of New York and Washington as advocates and bankers throughout the country as audience, the famous Riggs bank case came to trial here today.

Charles G. Glover, president; William J. Flather, vice-president, and Henry H. Flather, former cashier of the Riggs National Bank are answering the charge of perjury in the District Supreme Court.

The three men are charged with testifying falsely that the Riggs Bank did not engage in stock transaction. Back of the case is the fight that has raged for a year or since the Riggs bank officials charged Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Currency and other Treasury officials with conspiracy to wreck the bank.

The bank officials plead that the stock transactions, alleged by the government to have been with the defunct Lewis, Johnson & Company in the name of the bank, were those of the bank's customers.

Samuel Untermeyer, chief counsel for the Treasury officials in the conspiracy suit, is expected to act in an advisory capacity to U. S. Attorney Laskey, prosecutor. For the bank officials, the star corporation lawyers of Washington acting.

The fight between Williams and the bank officials has been bitter. Charges of perjury, bad faith and general undesirability have flown back and forth between them ever since the spring of 1915.

Upon the acquittal of the officials or their resignation hangs the renewal of the charter of the Riggs bank—one of the oldest and strongest outside of New York. Williams has hinted that he will not renew the charter if the present officers remain in charge unless they are freed of the perjury charge against them.

It is possible the trial will not be over before the present charter of the bank expires July 1.

The government charges 932 items of stock dealing by the bank. The fact that the company with which the transactions allegedly were made is defunct was another angle expected to be considered.

The fact that the trial started today was a defeat for the bank officers, who tried to have it advanced on the calendar to assure its completion before the time for renewal of the charter.

UPSET TRYING TO AVOID MISHAP

Crowd of Young People Escape
Serious Injury When Light
Automobile Turns Over

CAR FALLS ON MILDRED ONEAL

Girl at Wheel Cuts Corner Too Short
in Order to Miss Another
Machine

Becoming confused when she saw a machine approaching and thinking to avoid an accident, Miss Clela McNamara driving a machine owned by Joseph Campbell of Shelbyville in which were the Misses Mildred Oneal and Aileen Green, Woodford Richardson, also of Shelbyville and the owner, turned suddenly into a side street and the light car upset. The accident occurred Sunday morning at the corner of Main and Ninth streets.

Miss Oneal was the only one hurt, although all suffered from the shock. Miss Oneal was rendered unconscious, but soon revived. She was bruised considerably but the injuries will not prove serious. The escape of the occupants was considered remarkable.

As the machine approached Ninth street from the south, the machine driven by John Benning of near Moscow, was approaching Main street in West Ninth street. Miss McNamara, believing that a collision was unavoidable, turned suddenly into Ninth street. Before she could right the machine it turned over.

Mr. Benning stated after the accident that the young people had plenty of time to get by the crossing and that as he had his machine under control there was no chance of a collision. Mr. Benning was considerably worried over the accident as he believed that in a way he was responsible.

The five young people were in a light runabout and fortunately the machine did not fall on them. The machine was not damaged outside of a broken wind shield. The crash was heard for several blocks and the accident attracted a large crowd.

Mrs. Robert Cameron, in Suit For Divorce, Alleges Husband
Wouldn't Provide Any.

ASKS $1,000 ALIMONY ALSO

Mrs. Prisella Cameron, through her attorney Thomas M. Green filed suit for divorce this morning Robert Cameron, asking for the custody of their two children and alimony in the sum of $1,000. A temporary restraining order was issued by the court forbidding him from disposing of any of his property.

The complaint alleges cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Cameron claims that he repeatedly struck and beat her and called her vile names. The complaint states that he kept the groceries and provisions under lock and key and that the children were often compelled to go hungry.

MARY J. CONNER IS FOUND DEAD

Mother of Mrs. Jane Kincaid Expires
Some Time Saturday
Night or Sunday Morning

HER DEATH A GREAT SHOCK

Mrs. Mary J. Conner, 78 years old, widow of the late B. L. Conner, was found dead in bed Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jane Kincaid, in North Morgan street. Mrs. Conner had been dead about two hours when found. Death was due to heart disease. She had been in her usual health and Saturday evening ate a hearty supper and retired for the night apparently in fine health. Her death came as a great shock to a large circle of friends and relatives.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Kincaid, two brothers, S. W. Thompson, and Victor Thompson and one sister, Mrs. Susan McColligan. Mrs. Conner is also survived by two grandchildren, Russell and Florence Conner. The funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock at the late residence and burial will take place in East Hill cemetery. Friends may call any time.

FATHER WILL BE HONORED ALSO

First Presbyterian Church Will Honor
or "Head" of Home as Well
as "Heart"

TWO SPECIAL SERVICES

Next Sunday Morning all Churches
Will Worship at Mother's Shrine
Events Combined

Father, the long neglected "head" of the house, will take place alongside Mother next Sunday and will be signally honored. He will come into what is rightfully his when the First Presbyterian church will recognize him as a component part of the household and will hold services in his honor in the evening of the day which it has been the custom to celebrate Mother's Day, which is now almost universally observed.

Father's Day has been growing in momentum for years. Father's Day has been observed in some places previous to this year, but the First Presbyterian church has hit upon the idea of celebrating both special occasions on the same day.

The second Sunday in May is now widely observed as Mother's Day and will be so celebrated by all of the churches in the city and most of them in the county, it is very probable.

Mother's Day was founded in 1908 by Miss Anna Jarvis, and the sentiment of the idea made an instant appeal. In 1914 Congress passed resolutions on Mother's Day, setting aside the second Sunday in May as the date of its observance.

Like other memorial days Mother's Day is celebrated through the agency of flowers. It was suggested that persons whose mother was dead should wear a white carnation, and that a colored carnation should mean that the mother still lived. The demand for carnations became so much greater than the supply that within the last year or two it was suggested that any flowers should have the same symbolic meaning.

It is also the custom to send flowers to one's mother—ranging from the most expensive orchids to the lovely old-fashioned mignonette or forget-me-nots. In honor of dead mothers, in addition to the wearing of white flowers, it has become more and more a custom to make a special visit on this day to the grave of the departed, and to decorate the grave with wreaths, plants and floral tributes.

(By United Press.)
New York, May 8.—The supposed "German raider" which the Fabre liner Venecia outran off the Azores were probably British or French cruisers at target practice. ## SUES FOR $10,000 AND TAKES $75

R. A. Hardin, Who Compromised
Alienation Suit, Also Released
From Paying Former Wife $100.

EACH SIDE PAYS OWN COSTS

One-Time Mother-in-Law of Hardin's, Mrs. Margaret Glenden-ning, Defendant in the Case.

What promised to be the most sensational alienation suit ever tried here ended this morning by a compromise shortly after the jury had been obtained. It was the suit of Robert Basil Hardin against Mrs. Margaret Glendenning in which $10,000 was demanded.

Under the terms of the compromise Hardin received $75 and is released from paying $100 alimony to his divorced wife, Mrs. Jeauette Hardin, obtained through a judgment not long ago. Each side paid their own costs and two other suits involving the Hardins, Joe and Basil, father and son, respectively, and Mrs. Glendenning were dismissed and the costs paid. These two suits were an action to replevin some hogs, filed by the Hardins and a receivership suit brought by Mrs. Glendenning.

The alienation suit had its origin from the divorce suit and was filed shortly after the divorce was heard. The allegations in the complaint were of a sensational nature and would have been a repetition of the evidence introduced at the divorce trial.

The work of securing the jury had been completed when the compromise was reached. The jury had been sworn and the attorneys were ready for the opening statements. The agreement between the parties was made in writing.

It will be recalled that the Hardin divorce suit was one of the most interesting ever tried here and was exceedingly hard fought. The parties reside in the neighborhood of Arlington and the case attracted no end of attention. In the complaint for damages alleging alienation of his wife's affections, Hardin maintained that Mrs. Glendenning insisted on being near her daughter and so influenced her that she lost her love for him.

John A. Tittsworth and Thomas M. Green represented the plaintiff and Kiplinger and Smith the defendant.

Edmund Rosenberg was given judgment for $25 and costs against William and Cleo Emsweller by the court this morning. It was an account suit in which the original demand was $100.

Perry T. Innis was appointed guardian for Philander M. Witters of Milroy by Judge Sparks this morning. Innis gave bond in the sum of $2,000. The appointment was made after the court heard the evidence in the case, and declared Witters of unsound mind.

OPPOSES THE AMENDMENT

Brandeis Confirmation is Again
Postponed Indefinitely.

(By United Press.)
Washington, May 8.—Just as the senate judiciary committee, urged to action by a letter from President Wilson, prepared to ballot on the confirmation of Louis D. Who the senators were, members of the committee would not say.

ACCEPTS PART AND REJECTS THE REST

Wilson Will Send Note to Germany
Favors Part of Reply Regarding
New Orders.

REMAINDER TO BE PASSED UP

(By United Press.)
Washington, May 8.—President Wilson will announce acceptance of the German reply to his submarine note late today. It is understood the president's proposition will be outlined in a brief note to Germany, to be made public this afternoon by Secretary Lansing.

This note already may be on its way to Berlin. The president and Lansing conferred last night on its contents and the fact that publication is being held up until this afternoon is believed due to the desire to give time for the note to reach Germany. The note, which is said to be formal acknowledgement of the receipt of the German reply, will indicate plainly, it is declared, that this government in accepting the new pledges by Germany considers herself in no way bound to certain conditions laid down in the German note.

It may be stated on the highest authority that the president's position, summed up briefly, is the acceptance of that part of the German reply which covers the new German order and a rejection of everything else.

FAILS TO TAKE HER EXILE SERIOUSLY

Flora Williams, Ordered to Stay Out
of Rushville, Reappears and is Arrested.

SHE CREATES DISTURBANCE

Miss Flora Williams of Arlington failed to take seriously her exile from Rushville, a condition imposed recently by Mayor Bebout when he suspended a fine of $10 and costs and as a result spent Saturday night and Sunday in jail. Friends came to her aid today paying the fine and costs amounting to $20.

Miss Williams was originally fined for evading a subpoena and Mayor Bebout suspended the sentence on the condition that she remain from Rushville and the home of Thomas Alsman, her brother-in-law. It was stated that she has frequently been back here, but police did not locate her until Saturday night. She created an awful disturbance on the way to jail. A hearing in police court was not necessary to revoke the suspension of the sentence.

RUSH PURSUIT OF MURDERERS

United States Authorities Have Several Troops on Trail of Bandits
Raiding Glenn Springs

KILLED 3 SOLDIERS AND BOY

Big Bend District of Texas is in
White Heat of Rage Over
Muderous Assault

(By United Press.)
Marathon, Texas, May 8.—Two troops of the Eighth cavalry and Troop A of the Fourteenth cavalry, the former from El Paso and the latter from Alpine, detained here today and plunged into the desert on an 85-mile march to Glenn Springs, the first leg of their chase after the bandits who raided Glenn Springs.

Aline, Texas, May 8.—American troops today rushed through the desolate stretches of the Big Bend country in pursuit of Mexican bandits who killed three American soldiers and a ten-year-old boy and captured two American citizens after a five-hour battle against a little detachment at Glenn Springs, Texas.

The Big Bend country was in a white heat of rage today and throughout the district cattlemen and other residents were rallying to the cry for vengeance. An entire battalion ordered out by General Funston, will detain immediately and sweep southward over the desert towards the border.

El Paso, Texas, May 8.—Three American soldiers and a ten-year-old boy have lost their lives and two American citizens have been kidnapped and carried south of the international boundary to almost certain death in another raid of Mexican bandits that takes rank with Francisco Villa's famous attack on Columbus, N. M.

Practically all the details of the raid reaching here came to General Funston from Major O. B. Meyer, of the Fourteenth Cavalry, stationed at Marfa. According to Major Meyer, the bandits, about seventy-five in number, crossed the Rio Grande from the Mexican side late Friday afternoon at a pointsouth of Terlingua, Tex., where there is a guard of about thirty men.

From there they proceeded eastward through the desolate reaches of the Big Bend country over an old wagon road toward Glenn Springs, a small ranch settlement.

A few miles west of Glenn Springs an American patrol of eight men from Troop A of the fourteenth Cavalry, under command of Sergeant Smith, was stationed. The bandits began an attack on the little temporary shack in which the troopers were

"Trade-marked" articles—things sold by NAME or DISTIN-GUISHING and IDENTIFYING BRANDS—must be kept at the highest standard of quality. The VALUE must never vary.
For a maker to "cheapen" such an article would be to throw away the prestige he had fought so hard, and advertised so effectively, to gain.

K. OF C.'S PLAN ORPHANS' HOME

State Convention Will Consider Pro-
position of Place For Friend-
less and Delinquent Boys.

ORIGINATED FROM GARY

Said to be Most Important Thing
Coming Before State Meeting
—May Cost $90,000.

(By United Press.)
Lafayette, Ind., May 8.—Three hundred delegates to the state convention of the Knights of Columbus,
in session here, began considering
today a real home for homeless and friendless delinquent boys, a home
in which they will not only be cared for until they reach an age at which they can shift for themselves, but a place to which they can return and
"put their feet under the table" in later years.

This subject was designated as the most important to come before
this convention, which started yesterday with a high mass at 10:30
a. m. The convention will end tomorrow night with an elaborate ball.
Gary delegates came here claiming credit for originating the idea
of the home and asserting that a site
near Gary would be chosen for it.
Other delegates, notably some from Indianapolis, disputed Gary's right
to the idea and said that "several
sites were being considered."

The school and home, which will
be erected at the cost of $90,000,
had its beginning in the mind of C. H.
Maloney six years ago, according to the Gary version. The plan has now been approved by every council in the state and the $90,000 fund has been raised. A Jansen of Gary and
the site only remains to be selected.
"Because the project originated in the St. Thomas council of Gary, a site near that city is to be selected,"
said a Gary delegate.

Under the plan for the organization of such a school the members
of the state council expect to do
away to a large extent with sentencing boys to reform schools.

REAL ESTATE SALE

CITY RESIDENCE 388.58 ACRES

The undersigned commissioners appointed in an action for partition of the real estate of Daniel Brown, late of Rush County, Indiana, deceased, wherein Dean Travis is plaintiff and John M. Brown et al are defendants, to sell the real estate described in the complaint in said cause filed in the Rush Circuit Court, will on

Saturday, June 3d, 1916

at one o'clock p. m. of said day and from day to day thereafter until sold, offer for sale to the highest and best bidder, the following described real estate
in said county of Rush, State of Indiana, to-wit:
The southwest quarter of Section 10; also the south half of the northwest quarter of said Section 10; also the southeast quarter of said Section 10, except the following tract: beginning at the northwest corner of the said southeast quarter of said Section 10, thence south 25 poles, thence east 160 poles to the east line of said Section, thence north 25 poles to the northeast corner of said quarter, thence west on the north line of said quarter to the place of beginning; all of said real estate being in Township 13 north, Range 9 east and containing 388.58 acres. Also Lot No. 276 in Payne, Reeve and Allen as trustees addition to the city of Rushville.

At the law office of Sam. L. Trabue, Rushville, Ind.

This real estate consists of residence property at 820 W. Eighth St., Rushville, Indiana, and 388.58 acres of exceptionally good, level, agricultural land, sufficiently undulating for excellent drainage, which is provided by two large tile drains crossing each tract, and sufficient laterals. It is equipped with two complete sets of farm buildings, is well fenced and is supplied with excellent water by eight wells, three being deep water wells. This is burr oak, poplar and sugar tree land, and is very productive of all kinds of grain and grasses.
It is all under a high state of cultivation except about 35 acres of woodland, part of which is on each tract and part of which is well set in blue-grass. By judicious crop rotation, clover growing and fertilization this land has retained a very high degree of fertility, as is evidenced by the fact that administrator's sale amounted to $15,500.00 in addition to grain feed and a $2,500.00 wheat crop. There are 2 first class orchards of leading fruits—one young and the other full bearing; also all kinds of small fruits. No open drains. No waste land whatever. This land is located 4 1/2 miles southwest of Rushville on first class highway, in active producing natural gas belt, convenient to church and schools and near a high tension electric supply line from which power and light may be obtained. Community highly intellectual and progressive. Will be sold in tracts ranging from 81 acres to 140 acres or all together.

TERMS—One-third cash, one-third in 12 months and one-third in 18 months with option of paying all cash. Deferred payments to be evidenced by purchasers note bearing 6 per cent per annum interest from date and secured by first mortgage upon the real estate sold.

influence which the ingenuity of man can direct against his brother are resulting in a carousal of prosperity for the United States. The imports will continue to record monthly increases so long as the Democratic tariff law is on the statute books, and when the war has ended and the consuming power of Europe has returned to something like normal, the United States will be the great free trade market of the world, if the Democrats are then in power.

The revenue-producing ability of the Underwood law for March was, miserably indeed, only $21,000,000 being realized on the vast amount of imports, or an average rate of duty on all goods imported during the month of 9.8 per cent. The record for the nine months ended with March is equally bad in respects to revenues. We imported during that period $1,505,000,000 worth of goods. This is $103,000,000 more than was imported for the nine months period ended March 1913, under the Republican law, but the revenue collected up to and including March 1916 was $97,500,000 less than for the period ended March 1913. For the nine months just past customs duties amounted to $153,000,000, or an average rate of duty for the period of 10 per cent. During the nine months ended March 1913, under Republican law, on $1,402,000,00 of imports we collected $250,345,000 of customs revenue, or an average rate of duty of 18 per cent.

Nine months of the current fiscal year show a net inward gold movement of $279,315,302. This is money coming from Europe to be used toward liquidating our trade balances against the belligerents. The record for the period just previous to the outbreak of the European war tells quite another story. The Underwood tariff law had been in effect ten months before the war started. Our favorable trade balance began to decrease with startling rapidity immediately after the passage of that law. By April it was against us. In other words we were buying more than we were selling. The balance continued against us each month, rising to $19,400,000 in August. The effect of war orders had not yet become manifested. During the eight months ended August 1914, our gold exports totaled nearly $100,000,000.

Not only did the Republican tariff law protect American industry and American workmen, but it kept the United States Treasury in good shape. When Woodrow Wilson stepped into office the outgoing Republican administration was able to hand over to him a handsome surplus to set up housekeeping for Uncle Sam. On March 31, 1913, there was a total balance in the general fund of $148,500,000. Eighty millions of that was set aside as a working balance. Democratic extravagance and the failure of the Underwood law as a revenue producer gutted the Treasury in short order. At the end of March, 1916, outstanding claims against the Government, unavailable assets, etc., amounted to $140,433,000. McAdoo reported a balance at that time of $126,745,695, which was $13,687,000 less than these outstanding claims and unavailable assets. The secretary of the Treasury has twice changed the system of Government accounting in order to hide the condition of the Treasury, and it is stated that another method of book-keeping is soon to be adopted, in order to put up a bluff at the close of the fiscal year. And if a "working balance" should show up around the U. S. Treasury they would chloroform it and send it to Redfield's trade museum.

It has been discovered that open air school work gives to teachers such fine complexions that they become the object of envy among their friends. Miss Alice Brumer, of Indianapolis, being called upon to do substitute work as teacher in one of the Indianapolis open air schools, found that in just a few weeks she had gained ten pounds and had developed such good color, and such a fresh and rosy complexion that a friend whom she met on a street car inquired as to the kind of toilet soap she was using. Open air school teachers, and nurses, as well as pupils use nature's cosmetics, and soon show the effect of increased resistance and improved health.

APRIL PROVED
"DISTINCTIVE"

Maximum Rainfall in 24 Hours For Period of 36 Years Recorded Last Month

NEW RECORD FOR CLOUDINESS

April this year was a "distinctive" month for two years, according to the monthly report of Elwood Kirkwood, county weather observer for the government. The maximum rainfall for April in a period of 24 hours for the last 36 years was 3.41 inches, which was the case last month. April also set records for cloudiness because there were only two totally clear days in the month. That happened once before in April, 1898.

The maximum temperature for April in a period of 36 years was 1914 and 1896. The high mark was 87, which was not reached last April. The minimum temperature for the same period was 15 above, which was recorded in 1886. The total April rainfall in 36 years was 120.44 inches. The maximum number of rain days was 21, coming in the year 1893. In April, 1896 there were only three rainy days.

The minimum number of clear days for the month in 36 years was 21 and the minimum clear days 2. The total snowfall for April in 28 years was 22.5 inches, making the normal snowfall for April .8 inches.

HUNDRED LEADING HOOSIERS

George W. Julian (1817-1899)

George W. Julian was born on a farm near Centerville, Wayne county, May 5, 1817. Finishing the rural schools he became a teacher for three years he studied law and was admitted to the bar. In 1845 he was elected to the legislature and in 1849 was sent to Congress. Perhaps no public man in Indiana affiliated with more political parties than Julian. As a Whig legislator, vice-president candidate on the Free Soil ticket, Republican congressman, supporter of Horace Greely, and a Democratic appointee under Cleveland, his political record is unique. The fact that he held so many prominent positions in so many political parties is proof of his unusual greatness. During the late years of his life he was busily engaged in writing. Aside from many contributions to newspapers and magazines he published four volumes "Speeches on Political Questions," "Political Recollections," "Later Speeches," and "The Life of Joshua R. Giddings." Julian died July 7, 1899.

LOCATIONS TAKEN NEARBY

Indianapolis, Ind., May 8.—The trials and troubles of the "location" men in the employ of the Selig Polyscope Company, which is staging and photographing the scenes of the Indiana centennial motion picture for the Interstate Historical Pictures Corporation, are many and varied according to H. C. Hoagland, general manager of the Selig Company. Mr. Hoagland stopped off in Indianapolis for a few minutes on his way to Chicago from Lafayette where he has been superintending the work of staging the battle of the battle of Tippecanoe and the Prophetstown for the Indiana picture.

"All of the beautiful locations our experts found are not susceptible to motion picture photography because of modern improvements," said Mr. Hoagland. "For all the scenes in the Indiana picture we have selected sites near the historical scene where the danger of anachronisms is eliminated. In many cases, however, it will not be possible to produce the scenes right on the spot because of the changes which time has wrought. But we have found suitable locations nearby and thus kept the atmosphere of Indiana soil."

SOCIAL WELFARE IS BIG PROBLEM

This is Theme That Draws Together Today at Purdue Hundreds of Rural Pastors

ALSO LAYMEN ATTENDING

President Stone Makes Opening Address on First Anniversary of University Effort

Lafayette, Ind., May 8.—One of the great problems of country life in Indiana is how to promote the social welfare of rural communities and it is this theme that has drawn together hundreds of pastors and laymen of the state who assembled at Purdue University today for the second annual Rural Church Conference. It is now generally recognized that the most important factor in rural welfare is the church and the object of this meeting is to advise ways and means of closer co-operation between the rural church and the various other agencies that are at work to make country life all that it should be.

Unusual interest has been aroused throughout the state in this question of rural welfare and through the efforts of Purdue University's Agricultural Extension Department in co-operation with the Indiana Church Federation this interdenominational conference is being held to discuss all phases of the question and arrange a working program for the coming year. Representative rural pastors and church workers are here from many different agricultural communities in Indiana to exchange views, review what has been done and outline what is to be done during the next twelve months in the direction of a general rural uplift movement.

Purdue University, having served the farmers of the state in many different ways through education and spreading the gospel of scientific farm methods, is now endeavoring to advance the social welfare of the rural population and it is through the country church and pastors that the University is hoping to solve some of the problems of country life.

The second annual Rural Church Conference marks the close of the first year of active effort in this direction. Much has been accomplished. Much more remains to be accomplished. The fact that the rural welfare movement has met with success is evidenced by the attendance at this year's conference which is double what it was at the first conference.

Three days are to be devoted to a study and discussion of the rural situation and the relation of the country church to the social advancement of the rural community. Among the speakers are men of national reputation as students of country life problems and the program includes addresses, discussions and a general interchange of ideas concerning just what steps are to be taken to promote the work already under way throughout the state. Ministers have come from practically all the important rural communities and with them have come many active laymen. Practical subjects are to be handled in a practical way and helpful suggestions of all kinds advanced.

At today's session President Winthrop Ellsworth Stone of Purdue University discussed Purdue's relation to rural life; the Rev. Walfrid Lindstrom of Pleasant Lake and the Rev. John M. Walker of New Albany gave interesting and enthusiastic accounts of district conferences held at Auburn and English, Ind.; the Rev. W. W. Diehl of Hineckley, Ill., discussed "Centering Community Interests in the Church" and the Rev. Oakel F. Hall, student pastor at Purdue, gave an illustrated lecture on "Week-day Activities of the Church."

President Stone, in his opening address, reviewed the history of the agricultural extension movement, told of the many things Purdue has done to promote the interests of farm folk in Indiana and urged a close co-operation between the rural people and the various university agencies which have for their object the improvement of rural conditions.

In their reports of the district conferences the Rev. Lindstrom and the Rev. Walker called attention to the growing realization of the church's relation to rural advancement and the enthusiasm manifested at these gatherings, the first of the kind ever held in Indiana. They indicated a growing desire on the part of all enterprising rural communities to make the church the social center by giving it their support and co-operating in every way possible with the work which can and ought to be done by the church and school in every agricultural neighborhood.

An exceptionally enthusiastic, practical and useful address was that by Rev. Diehl who is qualified to discuss rural problems by reason of the fact that he is a graduate of the Michigan Agricultural college, has taught school in the country and now preaches in a rural community. "I elect to be a country preacher," he said, "because I think it is the best place on God's footstool to invest a human life." Continuing, he said, "The social center church is now demanded in the country. There are few societies or organizations in the average country community. Casual meetings are of an individual nature. There exists too little community sense or consciousness. The tendency now is to go to town for amusement, entertainment and, often, for instruction. The countryside, as far as social life and service are concerned, is too often left a barren waste."

People crave companionship, they like to be together. Therefore, they need some common meeting place for work and play, for sociability, for educational and spiritual uplift. Let the country community forget its church differences for a generation and emphasize the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man and give opportunity for the cultivation of a brotherly service and the country church will become a real social center and a tremendous force for righteousness and better living. Country folk live on about the same social plane and have interests in common. With inspiration and incentive from the church the social life will be broadened and will not get out of joint with religion. Fellowship will develop and a wholesome community pride and spirit will be restored.

"It is nonsense to say that social educational and industrial activities centering in the country church will detract from religion and lead to worldliness. Social service tends to give life and reality to religion. Church life and business will drag

WISCONSIN UNIVERSITY MEN DEFEND CITY

Sham Battle at State School is Feature of Inspection of Military Corps Today.

RETREAT ONE OF PROBLEMS

(By United Press.)
Madison, Wis., May 8.—A battle in which University of Wisconsin cadets are defending the city of Madison from an attacking force is the main feature of annual inspection of the university military corps by Mayor Monroe McFarland of the general staff of the United States army, today.

The attacking force is advancing from Eagle Heights, a point three and a half miles from the university. The invaders awaited reinforcements at Eagle Heights, then advanced on the University boys encamped in a marsh two miles from the enemy.

The enemy was halted by machine gun fire. The commanding officer sent a flanking column around the Madison forces and caused them to retire.

The problem of the Madison boys was sent to work out their retreat from the marsh to a position in front of the university buildings. The narrowing of the attack was the problem of the enemy.

About Eighty Dealers Take Advanced Step in Business.

(By United Press.)
Chicago May 8.—The Chicago Automobile Trade Association today took a novel step in solving the used car situation when it opened the used car show in the Coliseum.

This is the first used car show that has been staged on a large scale in this country.

About eighty dealers are represented. No trucks, accessories or 1916 cars are on exhibition. All cars sold may be taken out at night and other cars put in their places.

The dealers are charged 25 cents a square foot for space. Each dealer takes 800 square feet of space, thus bringing the charge to $200. This amount, however, is expected to be made up in rebates. Admission is charged.

NO REASON FOR IT

When Rushville Citizens Show a Way

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a Rushville citizen says:

Mrs. Lizzie Borem, 840 W. 9th St., Rushville, says: "About six years ago I began to have trouble with my kidneys. The kidney secretions were very annoying and the trouble kept getting worse. The kidney secretions were very painful in passage and scanty. Doctors said it was gravel, but none of them did me any good. A short time ago I heard of how someone else was cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got a box at Wolcott's Drug Store. They helped me and I kept on using them. I have taken four boxes so far and the pain has left and I feel a great deal better. I believe that Doan's Kidney Pills will cure me."

SURVEY BEFORE THE BUILDING

This is Idea Embodied in Joint Highway Bill Now Pending Before House and Senate.

PROVIDES AN INVESTIGATION

Would Prevent Old Hit and Miss Plan of Building Roads Which Has Cost so Much.

Washington, May 8.—Provision for an investigation and report to Congress of a preliminary plan for a system of national highways by the Corps of Engineers of the army is made in a joint bill now pending before the Senate and House Committees on Military Affairs. The bill was introduced in the Senate by Senator John A. Shields of Tennessee and in the House by Representative John H. Small of North Carolina.

In particular this bill embodies the principle of having conducted a scientific investigation and survey of the highway routes upon which federal funds are to be expended before the work of construction is begun. It seeks, it is said, to prevent the hit or miss building of roads by the Federal Government which are located, not by expert surveys, but by local political influence, roads which begin anywhere within a State and end nowhere in particular. The danger of having federal funds for good roads expended in such fashion has already caused the dangerous cry of "pork" to be raised in Congress when the good roads appropriation bills were under discussion.

Under the terms of the Shields-Small bill, the Federal Government would devote its funds and energies solely to the construction of main or trunk-line highway units connecting and correlating the highway system within the States. Instead of providing funds to pay a part of the State's bills on State roads, the Federal Government would take over to build and maintain entirely, certain of the principal highways. That would relieve the States of a considerable part of their present burden and would allow them to devote more money to the building of more miles of good roads radiating from the State highways, while townships or individuals would build good roads feeding the county highways. Thus the entire country would be woven together by a network of highways each system feeding the other, as is done by the railways.

The Shields-Small bill was drawn by Mr. Cyrus Kehr, of Knoxville Tenn., a member of the National Highways Association, in co-operation with Senator Shields, Representative Small, and engineer officer on duty at the War Department. It has been approved by the War Department. While the bill embodies two of the principles for which the National Highways Association has contended in its Good Roads campaign, it is not particularly supported by the Association which thus far has lent its support to principles only and not to any particular piece of legislation.

That this effort to have Congress provide a preliminary highway plan prepared according to recognized principles of engineering and to

MAY DEMAND AN INCREASE

Much Speculation as to What Conductors Will Do.

(By United Press.)
St. Louis, Mo., May 8.—Eight hundred representatives of the Order of Railroad Conductors of America met here today for their first triennial convention.

There was much speculation as to whether they would vote to join the hundreds of thousands of other trainmen now threatening to strike if their wage demands are not met.

Grand Chief Conductor Garrison, said today that he does not believe there is any direct connection between this convention and the trainmen's labor troubles, but admitted the subject might come up for discussion.

Six hundred and fifty divisions in the United States and Canada are represented. The meeting will last two weeks, during which time the organization will be reconstructed and new officers elected.

provide for federal interstate highways before federal funds are spent, marks the trend of sentiment upon his subject here is indicated in the debates upon Good Roads measures which have recently occurred in Congress. In the debate upon the Bankhead bill, Senator George W. Norris, of Nebraska, said: "I think the contribution of the Federal Government ought not to go to all of the roads in the country. It ought to be confined to a system of interstate highways."

This idea of restricting the federal participation in highway construction to a system of main interstate trunk-lines to be located by the representatives of many an expert survey is now supported by many Congressmen. The opinion is growing that in this way such federal funds as are devoted to good roads construction will be spent toward a definite object, the highest economic results will be realized and the movement will be saved from condemnation by the public on the ground that it is "pork" legislation.

Tender Teeth—the first sign of Pyorrhea

When you brush your teeth, does it feel as though you were brushing against the quick? Do the gums sometimes bleed? This is because pyorrhea has caused the gums to pull away from your teeth, leaving the unenamelled surfaces unprotected.

Your dentist will tell you, if you ask him, that you have gum recession; and that gum recession is caused by pyorrhea.

Unchecked, pyorrhea will warp and shrink and deform the gums. It will break down the bony structure into which the teeth are set—and you will eventually lose them. To save your teeth you will have to begin to fight this dread disease at once.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

But Senreco does more. It cleanses the teeth delightfully. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senreco alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesomeness.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today; or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Senreco Remedies Company 503 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

quartered before the single sentinel could raise an alarm. The time was about 11 o'clock.

The attackers rushed toward the shack, shouting "Viva Villa!" and "Viva, Carranza!" They were met by a sturdy defense from the half-asleep Americans, however, and failed in their evident attempt to make a quick capture of the patrol guard.

From 11 o'clock that night until after 2 o'clock in the morning Sergeant Smith fought the Mexicans from the shelter of the patrol house. In that time three of his men, privates Cohen, Coloe and Rogers, had been killed and all the rest were wounded. Then the shack caught fire.

SUGGESTS READJUSTMENT

Washington Makes Representations to Carranza About Raid.

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 8.—Representations have been made to the Carranza government regarding the Mexican raid against the Big Bend country. A state department message to General Carranza suggested that he do all in his power to prevent a recurrence. Further it suggests a readjustment of Carranza forces would be advisable so that scattered bands could not again cross the Rio Grande.

The state department message assumed Carranza will do all he can to guard against all the fresh attacks.

FAMOUS RIGGS BANK CASE OPENS

Officials Charged With Perjury in Testifying Regarding Stock Transactions.

GOVERNMENT BACK OF CASE

Upon Acquittal or Resignations Depends Whether Government Will Issue Charter.

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 8.—With the leading legal lights of New York and Washington as advocates and bankers throughout the country as audience, the famous Riggs bank case came to trial here today.

Charles G. Glover, president; William J. Flather, vice-president, and Henry H. Flather, former cashier of the Riggs National Bank are answering the charge of perjury in the District Supreme Court.

The three men are charged with testifying falsely that the Riggs Bank did not engage in stock transaction. Back of the case is the fight that has raged for a year or since the Riggs bank officials charged Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Currency and other Treasury officials with conspiracy to wreck the bank.

The bank officials plead that the stock transactions, alleged by the government to have been with the defunct Lewis, Johnson & Company in the name of the bank, were those of the bank's customers.

Samuel Undermyer, chief counsel for the Treasury officials in the conspiracy suit, is expected to act in an advisory capacity to U. S. Attorney Laskey, prosecutor. For the bank officials, the star corporation lawyers of Washington acting.

The fight between Williams and the bank officials has been bitter. Charges of perjury, bad faith and general undesirability have flown back and forth between them ever since the spring of 1915.

Upon the acquittal of the officials or their resignation hangs the renewal of the charter of the Riggs bank—one of the oldest and strongest outside of New York. Williams has hinted that he will not renew the charter if the present officers remain in charge unless they are freed of the perjury charge against them.

It is possible the trial will not be over before the present charter of the bank expires July 1.

The government charges 932 items of stock dealing by the bank. The fact that the company with which the transactions allegedly were made is defunct was another angle expected to be considered.

The fact that the trial started today was a defeat for the bank officers, who tried to have it advanced on the calendar to assure its completion before the time for renewal of the charter.
